- 20.5 The directors may decline to register any transfer of shares unless:-
- 20.5.1 the instrument of transfer is deposited at the registered office of the Company or such other place as the directors may reasonably require, accompanied by the certificate (if any) for the shares to which it

- 20.10 Any guardian of an infant Member and any guardian or other legal representative of a Member under legal disability and any person entitled to share in consequence of the death insolvency or bankruptcy of a Member shall, upon producing such evidence of his title as the directors may require, have the right either to be registered himself as the holder of the share or to make such transfer thereof as the deceased or bankrupt Member could have made, but the directors shall in either case have the same right to refuse or suspend registration as they would have had in the case of a transfer of the share by the infant or by the deceased insolvent or bankrupt Member before the death insolvency or bankruptcy or by the Member under legal disability before such disability.

20.11 A person so becoming entitled to share in consequence of the death insolvency or bankruptcy of a Member shall have the right to receive and may give discharge for all moneys payable or other advantages due on or in respect of the share, but he shall not be entitled to receive notice of or to attend or vote at meetings of the Company, nor save as aforesaid, to any of the rights or privileges of a Member unless and until he shall be registered as a Member in respect of the share provided always that the directors may at any time give notice requiring any such person to elect either to be registered himself or to transfer the share and if the notice is not complied with within ninety days the directors may thereafter withhold all moneys payable or other advantages due in respect of the share until the requirements of the notice have been complied with.

Any Purchase Notice may be served upon the Vendor by mailing the same in a pre-paid registered envelope addressed to the Vendor at his address shown in the register of Members. The Vendor shall thereupon forthwith be obliged to deliver to the Company within 10 days from the date of the Purchase Notice the certificate(s) (if any) representing the shares specified in the Purchase Notice together with a duly executed transfer thereof.

21.1.2 In the event of the Vendor failing to carry out the sale of any Management Shares which he shall have become bound to transfer as aforesaid, the directors may authorise some person to execute a transfer of any such share(s) in accordance with the direction of the directors and may give a good receipt for the purchase price of such shares, and may register the transferee or transferees as holder or holders thereof and issue to him or them a certificate for the same and thereupon the transferee or transferees shall become indefeasibly entitled thereto. The Vendor shall in such case be bound to deliver up his certificate (if any) for the said shares, and on such delivery shall be entitled to receive the purchase price without interest and where appropriate a balance certificate for any Management Shares not transferred as aforesaid.

22 Modification of Rights

22.1 Subject to the provisions of the Company Law, all or any of the special rights for the time being attached to any class of shares for the time being issued (and for the avoidance of doubt Income Shares shall be regarded as a separate class from Accumulation Shares representing assets of the same Class Fund) may (unless otherwise provided by the terms of issue of the shares of that class) from time to time (whether or not the Company is being wound up) be altered or abrogated with the consent in writing of the holders of not less than two-thirds of the issued shares of that class or with the sanction of a Special Resolution passed at a separate general meeting of the holders of such shares in the register of Members on the date on which notice of such separate general meeting is given. For such purposes the directors may treat all the classes of Participating Shares as forming one class if they consider that all such classes would be affected in the same way by the proposals under consideration but in any other case shall treat them as separate classes.

- 22.2 To any such separate general meeting all the provisions of these presents as to general meetings of the Company shall mutatis mutandis apply, but so that the necessary quorum shall be not less than two Members present in person or represented by proxy holding at least one-third of the issued shares of the class (but so that if, at any adjourned meeting of such holders a quorum as above defined is not present, those holders of shares of the class who are present in person or represented by proxy shall be a quorum), and that every holder of shares of the class shall be entitled on a poll to one vote for every such share held by him and that any holder of shares of the class present in person or represented by proxy may demand a poll.
- 22.3 The Company in general meeting or the directors may at any time and from time to time confer upon the holders of Participating Shares of any class such further rights or privileges in addition to those herein contained as it or they may think fit without conferring such rights or privileges generally on the holders of all classes of Participating Shares provided that by so doing the rights of holders of any other class of Participating Shares as to (i) one vote per share on a poll or (ii) redemption or (iii) return of capital on a winding up or the application of the assets of the Class Fund or a particular class of Participating Shares within a Class Fund relating to such class are not thereby reduced or abrogated.
- 22.4 Subject to Article 22.3 the special rights attached to any class of shares having preferential rights shall (unless otherwise expressly provided by the conditions of issue of such shares) be deemed not to be varied by:-
- 22.4.1 the creation, allotment or issue of further shares ranking pari passu therewith; or
 - 22.4.2 the creation, allotment or issue of Management Shares; or
 - 22.4.3 the creation of Unclassified Shares; or

23 Variation of Share Capital

- 23.1 The Company may from time to time by special resolution increase its share capital by such sum divided into shares of such amounts as the special resolution shall prescribe.
- 23.2 All new shares shall be subject to the provisions of these presents with reference to payment, transfer, transmission, forfeiture and otherwise.
- 23.3 The Company may by special resolution from time to time alter its share capital by:-
 - 23.3.1 consolidating and dividing all or any of its share capital into shares of larger amounts than its existing shares;
 - 23.3.2 sub-dividing its shares, or any of them, into shares of smaller amount than that fixed by its Memorandum of Association so, however, that in the sub-division the proportion between the amount paid and the amount, if any, unpaid on each reduced share shall be the same as it was in the case of the share from which the reduced share is derived;
 - 23.3.3 cancelling any shares which, at the date of the passing of the special resolution in that behalf have not been taken, or agreed to be taken, by any person, and diminish the amount of its share capital by the amount of the shares so cancelled.

24 General Meetings

- 24.1 The Company shall in each year hold a general meeting as its annual general meeting in addition to any other meeting in that year. Annual general meetings shall be held within six months of the day on which the relevant annual accounting period ends at such time and place in the Island as may be determined by the directors.
- 24.2 All general meetings (other than annual general meetings) shall be called extraordinary general meetings. Extraordinary general meetings may be held in the Island or elsewhere.
- 24.3 The directors may call an extraordinary general meeting whenever they think fit and extraordinary general meetings shall be convened on such requisition, or in default may be convened by such requisitionists, and in such manner as provided by Company Law.
- 24.4 The directors shall call an extraordinary general meeting (or, as the case may require, a meeting of the holders of Participating Shares of any one or more classes) whenever by notice in writing the custodian requests such a meeting to be convened to consider any resolution relating to the termination of the appointment of the custodian or any alteration or amendment of the agreement between the Company and the custodian or any resolution which the custodian considers necessary in the interests of the holders of Participating Shares of any class.

25 Notice of General Meetings

- 25.1 At least twenty-one days' notice shall be given of every annual general meeting and of every general meeting called for the passing of a special resolution and at least fourteen days' notice shall be given of other general meetings. The notice shall be exclusive of the day on which it is served or deemed to be served and of the day for which it is given. Every notice shall be in writing and shall specify the place, the day and the time of the meeting and in the case of special business, the general nature of such business and, in the case of an annual general meeting, shall specify the meeting as such. Notice of every meeting shall be given in the manner hereinafter mentioned to all such persons as are under the provisions of these presents or the conditions of issue of the shares held by them entitled to receive notices from the Company.

- 25.2 The directors, the manager, the auditors and the custodian shall be entitled to receive notice of and attend and speak at any general meeting of the Company and the custodian's lawyers shall be entitled to attend every general meeting of the Company.
- 25.3 In every notice calling a general meeting of the Company, or of any class of Members, there shall appear with reasonable prominence a statement that a Member entitled to attend and vote is entitled to appoint one or more proxies to attend and vote instead of him and that a proxy need not also be a Member.
- 25.4 The accidental omission to give notice to or the non-receipt of notice by any person entitled to receive notice shall not invalidate the proceedings at any general meeting.
- 25.5 A meeting of the Company shall, notwithstanding that it is called by shorter notice than specified above, be deemed to have been duly called if it is so agreed:-
- 25.5.1 in the case of an annual general meeting or a meeting to pass a special resolution, by all the Members entitled to attend and vote thereat; and
- 25.5.2 in the case of any other meeting, by a majority in number of the Members having a right to attend and vote at the meeting, being a majority together holding not less than ninety-five per cent in nominal value of the shares giving that right.

26 Proceedings at General Meetings

- 26.1 All business shall be deemed special that is transacted at an extraordinary general meeting, and also all business that is transacted at an annual general meeting with the exception of the consideration of the accounts and balance sheet and the reports of the directors and auditors, the election of directors and auditors in the place of those retiring, the approval of the remuneration of the directors, and the appointment and the approval of the remuneration of the auditors.

- 26.2 No business shall be transacted at any general meeting unless a quorum is present. Two Members present either in person or by proxy but excluding the custodian, the manager and their respective associates, as the case may be, where they have a material interest in the business to be transacted at a general meeting shall be a quorum for a general meeting. A representative of a corporation authorised pursuant to Article 27.13 of these presents and present at any meeting of the Company or at any meeting of any class of Members shall be deemed to be a Member for the purpose of counting towards a quorum.
- 26.3 If within half an hour from the time appointed for a meeting a quorum is not present, the meeting, if convened on the requisition of or by Members, shall be dissolved. In any other case it shall stand adjourned to such day not being less than fifteen days thereafter, and at such time and place as the directors may determine and if at such adjourned meeting a quorum is not present within fifteen minutes from the time appointed for holding the meeting, the Members present either in person or by proxy whether they have a material interest or not shall constitute a quorum.
- 26.4 The chairman or, failing him, the deputy chairman of the directors, or failing him, some other director nominated by the directors shall preside as chairman at every general meeting of the Company, but if at any meeting neither the chairman nor the deputy chairman nor such other director is present within fifteen minutes after the time appointed for holding the meeting, or if none of them is willing to act as chairman, the directors present shall choose some director present to be chairman, or if no director is present, or if all the directors present decline to take the chair, the Members present shall choose some Member present to be chairman.
- 26.5 The chairman may with the consent of any meeting at which a quorum is present (and shall if so directed by the meeting) adjourn the meeting from time to time and from place to place but no business shall be transacted at any adjourned meeting except business which might lawfully have been transacted at the meeting from which the adjournment took place. When a meeting is adjourned for fourteen days or more ten clear days' notice at least, specifying the place, the day and the hour of the adjourned meeting, shall be given as in the case of the original meeting but it shall not be necessary to specify in such notice the nature of the business transacted at the adjourned meeting. Save as aforesaid, it shall not be necessary to give any notice of an adjournment or of the business to be transacted at an adjourned meeting.

- 26.6 At any general meeting, a resolution put to the vote of the meeting shall be decided on a show of hands unless before or upon the declaration of the result of the show of hands a poll is demanded by the chairman or by any Member present in person or by proxy. Unless a poll is so demanded, a declaration by the chairman that a resolution has been carried, or carried unanimously, or by a particular majority, or lost, or not carried by a particular majority, and an entry to that effect in the book containing the minutes of the proceedings of the Company shall be conclusive evidence of the fact without proof of the number or proportion of the votes recorded in favour of or against such resolution.
- 26.7 If a poll is duly demanded, it shall be taken in such manner and at such place as the chairman may direct (including the use of ballot or voting papers or tickets) and the result of a poll shall be deemed to be the resolution of the meeting at which the poll was demanded.
- 26.8 The chairman may, in the event of a poll, appoint scrutineers and may adjourn the meeting to some place and time fixed by him for the purpose of declaring the result of the poll.
- 26.9 In the case of an equality of votes, whether on a show of hands or on a poll, the chairman of the meeting at which the show of hands takes place or at which the poll is demanded shall be entitled to a second or casting vote.
- 26.10 A poll demanded on the election of a chairman and a poll demanded on a question of adjournment shall be taken forthwith. A poll demanded on any other question shall be taken at such time and place as the chairman directs not being more than thirty days from the date of the meeting or adjourned meeting at which the poll was demanded.

26.11 The demand for a poll shall not prevent the continuance of a meeting for the transaction of any business other than the question on which the poll has been demanded.

26.12 A demand for a poll may be withdrawn and no notice need be given of a poll not taken immediately.

If for the purpose of any meeting invitations to appoint as proxy a person or one of a number of persons specified in the invitations are issued at the expense of the Company, such invitations shall be issued to all (and not to some only) of the Members entitled to be sent a notice of the meeting and to vote thereat by proxy.

27.12 A vote given in accordance with the terms of an instrument of proxy shall be valid notwithstanding the death or insanity of the principal or the revocation of the instrument of proxy, or of the authority under which the instrument of proxy was executed, or the transfer of the shares in respect of which the instrument of proxy is given, provided that no intimation in writing of such death, insanity, revocation or transfer shall have been received by the Company at its registered office, before the commencement of the meeting or adjourned meeting at which the instrument of proxy is used.

- 29.6 Any director may at any time by writing under his hand and deposited at the registered office of the Company, or delivered at a meeting of the directors, appoint any person (including another director) to be his alternate director and may in like manner at any time terminate such appointment provided that no person who is resident in the United Kingdom may be appointed an alternate director unless his appointor is also so resident in the United Kingdom.
- 29.7 The appointment of an alternate director shall determine on the happening of any event which if he were a director would cause him to vacate such office or if his appointor ceases to be a director.
- 29.8 An alternate director shall be entitled to receive notices of meetings of the directors and shall be entitled to attend and vote as a director at any such meeting at which the director appointing him is not personally present and generally at such meeting to perform all functions of his appointor as a director and to be counted in the quorum and for the purposes of the proceedings at such meeting the provisions of these presents shall apply as if he (instead of his appointor) were a director. If he shall be himself a director or shall attend any such meeting as an alternate for more than one director his voting rights shall be cumulative. If his appointor is for the time being temporarily unable to act through ill-health or disability his signature to any resolution in writing of the directors shall be as effective as the signature of his appointor. To such extent as the directors may from time to time determine in relation to any committee of the directors, the foregoing provisions of this paragraph shall also apply mutatis mutandis to any meeting of any such committee of which his appointor is a member. An alternate director shall not (save as aforesaid or as otherwise in these presents provided) have power to act as a director nor shall he be deemed to be a director for the purposes of these presents.
- 29.9 An alternate director shall be entitled to contract and be interested in and benefit from contracts or arrangements or transactions and to be repaid expenses and to be indemnified to the same extent mutatis mutandis as if he were a director but he shall not be entitled to receive from the Company in respect of his appointment as alternate director any remuneration except only such part (if any) of the remuneration otherwise payable to his appointor as such appointor may by notice in writing to the Company from time to time direct.

29.10 The office of a director shall be vacated in any of the following events namely:-

29.10.2 if he becomes bankrupt or makes any arrangement or composition with his creditors generally;

29.10.3 if he becomes of unsound mind;

29.10.4 if he ceases to be a director by virtue of, or becomes prohibited from being a director by reason of, an order made under the provisions of any law or enactment;

29.10.5 if subsequent to his appointment he becomes resident in the United Kingdom and as a result thereof a majority of the directors are resident in the United Kingdom;

29.10.6 if he be requested by a majority of the other directors (not being less than two in number) to vacate office;

29.10.7 if he is removed from office by a resolution of the Company in general meeting.

29.11 The Company at any general meeting at which a director retires or is removed shall fill up the vacated office by electing a director unless the Company shall determine to reduce the number of directors.

29.12 At least seven days' previous notice in writing shall be given to the Company of the intention of any Member to propose any person other than a retiring director for election to the office of director and such notice shall be accompanied by a notice in writing signed by the person to be proposed confirming his willingness to be appointed provided always that if the Members present at a general meeting unanimously consent, the chairman of such meeting may waive the said notices and submit to the meeting the name of any person so nominated provided such person confirms in writing his willingness to be appointed.

- 29.13 At a general meeting a motion for the appointment of two or more persons as directors by a single resolution shall not be made unless a resolution that it shall be so made has been first agreed to by the meeting without any vote being given against it.

30 Transactions with Directors

- 30.1 A director may hold any other office or place of profit under the Company (other than the office of auditor) in conjunction with his office of director on such terms as to tenure of office and otherwise as the directors may determine.

- 30.2 No director or intending director shall be disqualified by his office from contracting with the Company either as vendor, purchaser or otherwise, nor shall any such contract or any contract or arrangement entered into by or on behalf of the company in which any director is in any way interested be liable to be avoided, nor shall any director so contracting or being so interested be liable to account to the Company for any profit realised by any such contract or arrangement by reason of such director holding that office or of the fiduciary relationship thereby established, but the nature of his interest must be declared by him at the meeting of the directors at which the question of entering into the contract or arrangement is first taken into consideration, or if the director was not at the date of that meeting interested in the proposed contract or arrangement, then at the first meeting of the directors held after he becomes so interested, and in a case where a director becomes interested in a contract or arrangement after it is made, then at the first meeting of the directors held after he becomes so interested and the nature of such interest shall be reported in the next following report of the auditors. A general notice in writing given to the directors by any director to the effect that he is a member of any specified company or firm, and is to be regarded as interested in any contract which may thereafter be made with that company or firm, shall (if such director shall give the same at a meeting of the directors or shall take reasonable steps to secure that the same is brought up and read at the next meeting of the directors after it is given) be deemed a sufficient declaration of interest in relation to any contract so made.

30.3 Save as herein provided, a director shall not vote in respect of any contract or arrangement or any other proposal whatsoever in which he has any material interest otherwise than by virtue of his interests in shares or debentures or other securities or otherwise in or through the Company. A director shall not be counted in the quorum at a meeting in relation to any resolution on which he is debarred from voting.

30.4 A director shall (in the absence of some other material interest than is indicated below) be entitled to vote (and be counted in the quorum) in respect of any resolution concerning any of the following matters, namely:-

30.4.1 the giving of any security or indemnity to him in respect of money lent or obligations incurred by him at the request of or for the benefit of the Company or any of its subsidiaries;

30.4.3 any proposal concerning an offer of shares or debentures or other securities of or by the Company of any of its subsidiaries for subscription or purchase in which offer he is or is to be interested as a participant in the underwriting or sub-underwriting thereof;

30.4.4 any proposal concerning any other company in which he is interested, directly or indirectly and whether as an officer or shareholder or otherwise howsoever provided that he is not the holder of or beneficially interested in one per cent or more of the issued shares of any class of such company (or of any third company through which his interest is derived) or of any of the voting rights available to members of the relevant company (any such interest being deemed for the purposes of this Article to be a material interest in all circumstances).

- 30.5 Where proposals are under consideration concerning the appointment (including fixing or varying the terms of appointment) of two or more directors to offices or employment with the Company or any company in which the Company is interested, such proposals may be divided and considered in relation to each director separately and in such case each of the directors concerned (if not debarred from voting under the proviso to Article 30.4.4) shall be entitled to vote (and be counted in the quorum) in respect of each resolution except that concerning his own appointment.
- 30.6 If any question shall arise at any meeting as to the materiality of a director's interest or as to the entitlement of any director to vote and such question is not resolved by his voluntarily agreeing to abstain from voting, such question shall be referred to the chairman of the meeting and his ruling in relation to any other director shall be final and conclusive except in a case where the nature or extent of the interests of the director concerned has not been fairly disclosed.
- 30.7 The Company may by resolution suspend or relax the provisions of Articles 30.3 to 30.6 inclusive to any extent or ratify any transaction not duly authorised by reason of a contravention thereof.
- 30.8 Any director may act by himself or through his firm in a professional capacity for the Company, and he or his firm shall be entitled to remuneration for professional services as if he were not a director, provided that nothing herein contained shall authorise a director or his firm to act as auditor.
- 30.9 The directors may from time to time appoint one or more of their body to be the holder of any executive office on such terms and for such period as they may determine and, without prejudice to the terms of any contract entered into in any particular case, may at any time revoke any such appointment provided that no such appointment carrying executive powers shall be held by a director at any time where he is or is deemed for the purposes of taxation to be a resident of the United Kingdom.

- 30.10 The directors may entrust to and confer upon any director residing outside the United Kingdom and holding any executive office any of the powers exercisable by them as directors upon such terms and conditions and with such restrictions as they think fit, and either collaterally with or to the exclusion of their own powers, and may from time to time revoke, withdraw, alter or vary all or any of such powers.
- 30.11 Any director may continue to be or become a director, managing director, manager or other officer or member of any company promoted by the Company or in which the Company may be interested or associated in business, and no such director shall be accountable for any remuneration or other benefits received by him as director, managing director, manager or other officer or member of any such other company. The directors may exercise the voting power conferred by the shares in any other company, in such manner in all respects as they think fit (including the exercise thereof in favour of any resolution appointing themselves or any of them directors, managing directors, managers or other officers of such company, or voting or providing for the payment of remuneration to the directors, managing directors, managers or other officers of such company).

31 Powers of Directors and Manager

- 31.1 The business of the Company shall be managed by the directors who may exercise all such powers of the Company as are not by the Company Law or by the Rules or by these presents required to be exercised by the manager, the custodian or the Company in general meeting, subject nevertheless to any regulations of these presents, to the provisions of the Company Law, the Rules and to such regulations, being not inconsistent with the aforesaid regulations or provisions as may be prescribed by the Company in general meeting, but no regulations made by the Company in general meeting shall invalidate any prior act of the directors which would have been valid if such regulations had not been made. The general powers given by this Article shall not be limited or restricted by any special authority or power given to the directors by this or any other Article.

- 31.2 The directors may entrust to and confer upon the manager any of the powers exercisable by them as directors of the Company.
- 31.3 The directors may from time to time and at any time appoint any company, firm or person or any fluctuating body of persons, whether nominated directly or indirectly by the directors, by power of attorney under the common seal of the Company, to be the attorney or attorneys of the Company or, by instrument in writing, to be the Company's representative for such purposes and with such powers, authorities and discretions (not exceeding those vested in or exercisable by the directors under these presents) and for such period and subject to such conditions as they may think fit, any such power of attorney or instrument may contain such provisions for the protection and convenience of persons dealing with any such attorneys or representatives as the directors may think fit, and may also authorise any such attorney or representative to sub-delegate all or any of the powers, authorities and discretions vested in him provided that no such appointment shall be made if it and the terms of any appointment so made shall prohibit such attorney or representative from exercising the powers and discretions vested in him in a manner which might render the Company assessable to taxation in a jurisdiction other than the Island to which it would not otherwise be liable.

32 Investment Restrictions

- 32.1 The property of each Class Fund or a particular class of Participating Shares within a Class Fund shall be invested, used, retained in cash or loaned as permitted by the Rules with respect to the category of recognised fund to which the relevant class of Participating Share relates subject to the limitations hereinafter contained in these presents and the investment objectives stated in the relevant fund rules as the case may be.
- 32.2 Subject to any restrictions in the Rules or the memorandum of association of the Company or these presents or the fund rules adopted for any Class Fund, the property of a Class Fund or a particular class of Participating Shares within a Class Fund may be invested in or dealt on any market -

- (a) which is an eligible market for that Class Fund or a particular class of Participating Shares within a Class Fund by virtue of the Rules; or
- (b) to the extent that the power to do so is conferred by the Rules irrespective of any issue of eligibility.

32.3 Any cash forming part of the property of a Class Fund or a particular class of Participating Shares within a Class Fund may be placed by the custodian in any current, deposit or loan account with the custodian (if a banker) or with any associate (being a banker) of the custodian or of the manager so long as that banker pays interest thereon at no lower rate than is in accordance with normal banking practice the commercial rate for a deposit of the size of deposit in question negotiated at arm's length.

32.4 The property of each class of Participating Share being a securities fund or fund of funds may where permitted by the Rules include units in another fund which is managed by the manager or by another company in the same group as the manager or by any person who is a controller of the manager or of which the manager is the controller.

32.6 No investment shall be acquired which would require the assumption by the Company of an unlimited liability, which for the avoidance of doubt shall include participation as a general partner in a partnership.

33 Borrowing Powers

33.1 No money shall be borrowed nor any hypothec, mortgage, charge, pledge or security interest created over the property of the Company or any part thereof without the authority of the directors.

34.5 The chairman or, failing him, the deputy chairman shall preside at all meetings of the directors, but if there is no chairman or deputy chairman, or if at any meeting the chairman or deputy chairman is not present within five minutes after the time appointed for holding the same, the directors present may choose one of their number to be chairman of the meeting.

34.6 A resolution in writing signed by all the directors for the time being entitled to receive a notice of a meeting of the directors shall be as valid and effectual as a resolution passed at a meeting of the directors duly convened and held outside the United Kingdom and may consist of several documents in the like form each signed by one or more of the directors, and for the purposes of the foregoing signature by any alternate director shall be as effective as the signature of the director by whom he is appointed. No resolution in writing shall be valid if a majority of those signing it are within the United Kingdom.

- 34.7 If a director is by any means in communication with one or more other directors so that each director participating in the communication can hear what is said by any other of them each director so participating in the communication is deemed to be present at a meeting with the other directors so participating, notwithstanding that all the directors so participating are not present together in the same place. No resolution passed at any such meeting shall be valid if a majority of directors participating in the communication are in the United Kingdom at that time.

- 34.10 All acts done by any meeting of directors, or of a committee of directors or by any person acting as a director shall, notwithstanding it be afterwards discovered that there was some defect in the appointment of any such director or person acting as aforesaid, or that they or any of them were disqualified, or had vacated office, or were not entitled to vote, be as valid as if every such person had been duly appointed, and was qualified and had continued to be a director and had been entitled to vote.
- 34.11 The directors shall cause minutes to be made of:-
- 34.11.1 all appointments of officers made by the directors;

34.12 Any such minutes as are referred to in Article 34.11 of these presents, if purporting to be signed by the chairman of the meeting at which the proceedings took place, or by the chairman of the next succeeding meeting, shall, until the contrary be proved, be conclusive evidence of their proceedings.

35 Secretary

The secretary to the Company shall be appointed by the directors. Anything required or authorised to be done by or to the secretary may, if the office is vacant or there is for any other reason no secretary capable of acting, be done by or to any assistant or deputy secretary or if there is no assistant or deputy secretary capable of acting, by or to any officer of the Company authorised generally or specially in that behalf by the directors provided that any provisions of these presents requiring or authorising anything to be done by or to a director and the secretary shall not be satisfied by its being done by or to the same person acting both as director and as, or in the place of, the secretary.

36 Seals

36.1 The Company shall have a common seal and may in accordance with the Company Law have an official seal for use outside of the Island and an official seal for sealing securities issued by the Company or for sealing documents creating or evidencing securities so issued.

36.2 The directors shall provide for the safe custody of all seals and no seal shall be used except by the authority of a resolution of the directors or of a committee of the directors authorised in that behalf by the directors.

36.3 The directors may from time to time make such regulations as they think fit determining the persons and the number of such persons who shall sign every instrument to which a seal is affixed and until otherwise so determined every such instrument shall be signed by one director and shall be countersigned by the secretary or by a second director, or some other person duly authorised by the directors, and the directors may authorise different persons for different purposes. The Company may, in writing under its common seal, authorise an agent appointed for the purpose to affix any official seal to a document to which the Company is a party.

- 36.4 The directors may from time to time determine that the signatures of any persons authorised to witness the affixing of any seal of the Company to a share certificate need not be manual but may be printed or reproduced in any other manner. Such signatures shall be valid notwithstanding the fact that at the time of issue of the share certificate the persons whose signatures are printed or reproduced have ceased to be authorised to witness the affixing of the seal.

37 Income Allocation

- 37.1 The annual income allocation date shall be within four months after the end of each Accounting Period.
- 37.2 The directors and manager may from time to time if they think fit and with respect to such periods and on such dates as they shall think fit make such interim allocations of income on Participating Shares of any class as are permitted by the Rules and the Company Law.
- 37.3 Income equalisation is hereby provided for pursuant to Article 9.07 of the Rules.
- 37.4 The dividend for any particular class of Participating Share shall only be payable out of the Class Fund relating to that class of Participating Share.
- 37.5 Dividends shall not be paid out of any profits or gains arising from the realisation of securities or other assets held for investment (“realisation surpluses”) or out of any unrealised surplus arising from a revaluation of such securities or assets or moneys in the nature of accretion to capital, but only out of net income (less expenditure) standing to the credit of a revenue account (including any revenue reserve) of the relevant Class Fund or a particular class of Participating Shares within a Class Fund PROVIDED THAT the foregoing provisions of this Article 37.5 shall not prevent the Company from paying dividends in respect of any accounting period out of realisation surpluses to the extent (and only to the extent) required to enable the Company to pursue a full distribution policy within the meaning of Part 1 of Schedule 27 to the United Kingdom Income and Corporation Taxes Act 1988 (offshore funds) in respect of that accounting period.

- 37.6 The amount of income so assessed shall be available for allocation between Income Shares and Accumulation Shares in accordance to the respective shares in the property of the Company represented by such respective types of Shares in issue or deemed to be in issue at the end of the relevant accounting period and there shall be carried forward as income such amount as shall be necessary to adjust the allocation to be made pursuant to this provision to the nearest one-tenth of a cent per Share or such lesser fraction of a cent as the manager may from time to time determine. The amount allocated to Income Shares shall be distributed to the holders of Income Shares pro rata to their holdings of such Shares. The interests of holders of Accumulation Shares in the amount allocated to Accumulation Shares (which amount shall be retained as Accumulated Income within the Company) shall be satisfied by implementation of paragraph (c) in the definition of “Accumulation Unit” in Article 1.
- 37.7 No allocation of income shall be made to the holders of the Management Shares or the Nominal Shares.
- 37.8 No annual or interim allocation or other amount payable to any Member shall bear interest against the Company.

38 Priority Status of Accumulated Income

Notwithstanding anything to the contrary in these Articles, any amount of income which has been allocated to, and accumulated in respect of, Accumulation Shares ("Accumulated Income") shall belong indefeasibly to the holders of Accumulation Shares who from time to time are entitled to those shares and shall, accordingly, not be capable of reallocation by, or in consequence of, any provision of these Articles to any other shares. No distribution out of any part of the Company shall be made to the extent that it would result in Accumulated Income not being covered by assets held in the Company. Where Accumulated Income is not covered by assets held in the Company, no distribution shall be made.

39 Share Premium

39.1 The directors shall establish accounts to be called the share premium accounts for each class of Participating Share and shall carry to the credit of such accounts from time to time a sum equivalent to the amount or value of the premium paid on the allotment of any Participating Share of the relevant clause.

39.2 There shall be debited to the share premium account of the relevant class of Participating Share on the redemption of a Participating Share of that class the difference between the nominal value of such share and a sum equivalent to the cancellation price relative thereto provided always that at the discretion of the directors all or part thereof may be paid out of the profits of the Company attributable to that class.

39.3 The Company shall at all times comply with the provisions of the Company Law in relation to the share premium account and the premiums attaching to the Participating Shares and in relation to the redemption of the Participating Share.

40 Accounts

40.1 The directors shall cause to be kept such books of account and financial records as are necessary in relation to the conduct of its business or as are required by the Company Law and the Rules or in accordance with Article 11 of these presents so as to enable the accounts and reports of the Company and accounts in respect of each Class Fund to be prepared.

40.2 The books of account shall be kept at the registered office of the Company, or at such other place as the directors shall think fit, and shall at all times be open to the inspection of the directors and such other persons as shall be entitled to inspect the books, accounts, documents or writings of the Company, as provided by the Company Law or the Rules or authorised by the directors or by the Company in general meeting.

40.3 Subject to Article 9.01 of the Rules the annual accounting period of the Company shall end on the 31st day of December.

41 Notices

41.1 Any notice or document may be served by the Company on any Member either personally or by sending it through the post in a prepaid letter addressed to such Member at his address as appearing in the register of Members. In the case of joint holders of a share, all notices shall be given to that one of the joint holders whose name stands first in the register of Members in respect of the joint holding, and notice so given shall be sufficient notice to all the joint holders.

41.2 Notices to be posted to addresses outside the Channel Islands and the United Kingdom shall so far as practicable be forwarded by prepaid airmail.

41.3 Any member present, either personally or by proxy, at any meeting of the Company shall for all purposes be deemed to have received due notice of such meeting and, where requisite, of the purposes for which such meeting was convened.

41.4 Any notice or other document to be served on any Member, if served by post, shall be deemed to have been served on the third day after the day when the letter containing the same is posted and in proving such service it shall be sufficient to prove that the letter containing the notice or document was properly addressed and duly posted. Such notice may be given by advertisement and a notice so given shall be published in at least one national leading daily newspaper in London and shall be deemed to have been served at noon on the day on which the advertisement appears.

41.5 Any notice or document delivered or sent by post to or left at the registered address of any Member in pursuance of these presents shall notwithstanding that such Member be then dead or bankrupt, and whether or not the Company has notice of his death or bankruptcy, be deemed to have been duly served in respect of any share registered in the name of such Member as sole or joint holder, unless his name shall, at the time of the service of the notice or document, have been removed from the register of Members as the holder of the share, and such service shall for all purposes be deemed a sufficient service of such notice or document on all persons interested (whether jointly with or as claiming through or under him) in the share.

42 Winding up

42.1 If the Company shall be wound up or dissolved the liquidator shall apply the assets of the Company in satisfaction of creditors' claims in such manner and order as he thinks fit. The liquidator shall in relation to the assets available for distribution among the Members make in the books of the Company such transfers thereof to and from Class Funds as may be necessary in order that the effective burden of such creditors' claims may be shared between the holders of shares of different classes in such proportions as the liquidator in his absolute discretion may think equitable having regard to the provisions of Article 11 of these presents.

42.2 The assets available for distribution among the Members shall then be applied in the following priority:-

41.2.1 First in the repayment pari passu to the holders of Participating Shares of each class of a sum in the base currency in which that class is designated or such other currency as the liquidator may permit or prescribe generally or in relation to a particular class of Participating Shares or in any specific case as nearly as possible equal (at the rate of exchange prevailing in the London Foreign Exchange Market at a time selected by the liquidator which is within the fourteen days preceding the date of such payment) to the nominal amount of the Participating Shares of such class held by such holders respectively provided that there are sufficient assets available in the relevant Class Fund to enable such payment to be made. In the event that, as regards any class of Participating Shares, there are insufficient assets available in the relevant Class Fund to enable such payment to be made, recourse shall be had:-

41.2.1.1 first, to the assets of the Company not comprised within any of the Class Funds; and

- 41.2.1.2 secondly, to the assets remaining in the Class Funds for the other classes of Participating Shares (after payment to the holders of the Participating Shares of the classes to which they relate of the amounts to which they are respectively entitled under this Article 41.2.1) pro rata to the total value of such assets remaining within each such Class Fund.
- 41.2.2 Secondly, in the payment to the holders of the Nominal Shares of sums up to the nominal amount paid up thereon out of the assets of the Company not comprised within any of the Class Funds remaining after any recourse thereto under Article 41.2.1.1 above. In the event that there are insufficient assets as aforesaid to enable such payment to be made in full to the holders of the Nominal Shares, no recourse shall be had to the assets comprised within any of the Class Funds.
- 41.2.3 Thirdly, in the payment to the holders of the Management Shares of sums up to the nominal amount paid up thereon out of the assets of the Company not comprised within any of the Class Funds remaining after any recourse thereto under Article 41.2.1.1 above and after payment in full to the holders of the Nominal Shares under Article 41.2.2 above. In the event that there are insufficient assets as aforesaid to enable such payment to be made in full. to the holders of the Management Shares, no recourse shall be had to the assets compromised within any of the Class Funds.
- 41.2.4 Fourthly, in the payment to the holders of Participating Shares of each class of any balance then remaining in the relevant Class Fund, such payment being made in proportion to the number of shares of that class held provided that in the case of any Class Fund where both Accumulation Shares and Income Shares are in issue such payment shall be made as follows:
- (a) the balance shall be divided (to produce the value of one undivided share in the net assets of the relevant Class Fund) by a number ascertained by adding (i) the number of undivided shares in the net assets of the relevant Class Fund attributable to the Accumulation Shares of that class (calculated by multiplying the number of Accumulation Shares of the relevant class in issue by the number of undivided shares in the net assets of the relevant Class Fund then attributable to one such Accumulation Share) and (ii) the number of Income Shares of the relevant class in issue;

- (b) the number ascertained pursuant to sub-article (a) multiplied by the number of Income Shares of the relevant class shall constitute the amount of the balance which shall be paid to the holders of such Income Shares in proportion to the number of those shares held;
- (c) the number ascertained pursuant to sub-article (a) multiplied first by the aggregate number of undivided shares determined pursuant to sub-article (a)(i) and then by the number of Accumulation Shares of the relevant class shall constitute the amount of the balance which shall be paid to the holders of such Accumulation Shares in proportion to the number of those shares held; and 41.2.5 Fifthly, in the payment to the holders of Participating Shares of each class of any balance then remaining and not compromised within any of the Class Funds, such payment being made in proportion to the number of Participating Shares held.
